AFFAIRS IN ALEXANDRIA

MULTIPLICATION OF THE TROUBLES OF ISAAC TANCIL.

Gets Out of the Tolls Only to Get in Again-United States Court in Session.

Evening Star Bureau, No. 701 King Street, Bell Telephone No. 106.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., January 8, 1902. Isaac Tancil, colored, familiarly known as "Buck," whose home is in Alexandria county, last evening got out of one difficulty only to fall into another. After a long confinement in the Alexandria county jail on Fort Myer Heights Tancil yesterday stepped out of his cell a free man, as he believed. For the time being he had satisfled the demands of the county authorities. He was not left long, however, in the enjoyment of undisturbed liberty. The officers of the United States court in session in this city pounced upon him before he had time to leave the premises and brought him under arrest before Commissioner John S. Fowler in his office in the federal building here. Without delay Tancil was given a hearing, by gaslight. He was turned over to an officer of the Washington detective force, who carried him to that city last night, where he will be required to stand trial in the federal court on the charge of stealing about $100 worth of electric light apparatus from the government at the time of the Dewey parade.

Tancil was arrested by United States Dep-uty Marshals Glover and Bland, accom-panied by the Washington detective. The prisoner had been in the county jall several months, serving a term of nine months in default of a peace bond. After a long effort he had succeeded yesterday in se-curing the bond necessary to effect his release. The prisoner made a record for him-self since his first incarceration in the county jail. Several months ago he succeeded in escaping and went to Washington, where he stayed until after the date for his release had he remained in jail. Thinking that he was then freed from the demands of the law, he ventured back to Alexandria county, but Sheriff Palmer caught him and he was placed in jail again. Securing attorneys Tancil made an appeal in Judge J. M. Love's court for his release. It was refused and the prisoner was remanded to jail to serve the remainder of his term. His troubles with the law seemed about at an end yesterday when he secured the peace bond, but now his new difficulties with the United States authorities appea to be of a more serious character.

United States Court.

The secc. I day's session of the United States court, Judge Edmund Waddill pre siding, began today at noon in the federal building. This afternoon the grand jury will investigate the case of William Webster, charged with violating the postal laws. If an indictment is reported the case may be set for trial at this term. It is ex-pected the testimony will be of a sensational nature. Yesterday afternoon the grand jury reported the following indictments: Henry Green and David Pearce, charged with pledging pension certificates; John J. Hall and Wm. W. Hall, constituting the firm of Hall & Hall, charged with receiving pension certificates; Chas. F. Dawson, charged with violating the liquor laws. The charge against E. W. McDaniel of mailing libelous postal cards was not sustained. An indict-ment was reported in the case of William H. Parker, charged with assaulting Morris Corcoran with intent to kill, near the Sol-diers' Home at Hampton, Va.

Confederate Veterans' Banquet. R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, has made extensive arrangements for the observance of Gen. Lee's birthday, January 19. This date, however, being Sunday, the camp will meet the Monday following in Odd Fellows' Hall, on North Columbus street, and a banquet will be the chief feature. Arrangements will be made to accommodate the ladies of the various confederate organizations in the city who wish to hear the speaking. Several prominent southern speakers will be present, among whom are the following: Representative John F. Rixey of Virginia, Representative Robert W. Davis of Florida, Representative William Richardson of Ala-bama, Representative Rice A. Pierce of Tennessee, Representative Macenas Benton of Missouri and Representative William Elliott of South Carolina.

Union Prayer Services.

A large congregation attended the secand meeting of the week of prayer services held last night in the First Baptist Church. Rev. J. H. S. Ewell of the Methodist Protestant Church delivered an address on the subject "Our Nation." A brief exhortation on national and individual opportunities for doing good was made by Rev. J. A. Jeffers. pastor of Trinity M. E. Church. Rev. Dr. George L. Hunt of the Baptist Church and E. V. Register of the M. E. Church South were on the platform and took part in the services. Rev. Dr. Frank J. Brooke of the Second Presbyterian Church was not able to be present. The services this evening will be held in the Presbyterian Church. Rev. Mr. Jeffers will be the leader and the theme will be "Our Churches."

Its Seventy-Fifth Anniversary. The Hydraulic Steam Fire Engine Company held a banquet last evening in the company's hall on North Alfred street, in observance of its seventy-fifth anniversary. Mayor George L. Simpson and several others made speeches. Before the banquet a business meeting was held and the follewing officers were elected for the ensuing year: M. B. Harlow, president; W. W. Ballenger, first vice president; E. W. Star-nell, second vice president; E. Padgett, jr., secretary; E. Stewart Smith, treasurer; William Wildt, recorder; Robert E. Gronau, foreman; Charles Ward, commander of hose. The re-election of Engineer William Bontz and Drivers Henry Allen and Ray-mond Smith were recommended to the Lyceum Choses Officers.

At the annual meeting of the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum, held last evening in Lyceum Hall, Duke street, the following officers were elected for ensuing year: John A. Nugent, president; P. J. Murphy, first vice president; James Roche, second vice president; Richard L. Carne, recording secretary; J. Linden Wheatley, corresponding secretary; J. N. Lawler, treasurer; F. T. Quinn, librarian; James T. Lawler, sergeant-at-arms. Messrs. Michael T. Dwyer, J. J. Hanratty, J. B. Lewis, Charles T. Hellnuth, W. H. Sweeney and Thomas Hoy, jr., were elected members of the council. Dr. E. A. Gorman, the retiring president, read his annual address, which showed that the affairs of the organization were in good
